Cap. 41:01

If any person, within twenty-one days from the date of first publication of a notice under section 9, gives to the licensing authority notice in writing of objection to the issue of the licence applied for, stating the grounds upon which his objection is based, the licensing authority shall proceed to hear the application and objection, and shall not issue or refuse to issue the licence applied for until the conclusion of such hearing.

[Ch4601s11]11. Objection to renewal of licence

If any person, on or before 1st March in any year, gives to the licensing authority notice in writing that he proposes to object to the renewal of any licence, stating the grounds upon which his objection is based, the licensing authority shall, after receipt of an application for renewal of the licence, notify the applicant of the objection and the grounds upon which it is based and proceed to hear the application and objection and shall not renew or refuse to renew the licence until the conclusion of such hearing.

[Ch4601s12]12. Hearing by licensing authority of application and objection

(1) At the hearing of any application for or objection to the issue or renewal of any licence by the licensing authority, the applicant, or any person who has given notice in writing of objection in accordance with the provisions of section 10 or section 11, may appear in person or by a legal practitioner:

Provided that a body corporate or unincorporate may appear either by legal practitioner or by a representative.

(2) The licensing authority shall have power to make such investigations as it may deem fit to assist it to reach a decision regarding any matter before it but in so doing shall not be bound by any rules of evidence.

(3) The licensing authority may, by notice in writing, require any person, subject to payment or tender of the reasonable expenses of his attendance, to attend as a witness and to give evidence or to produce any document in his possession or power which relates to any application or objection under the provisions of this Act and any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any of the requirements of such notice shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that no person shall be required to produce any book, account, voucher, receipt or other document which directly refers to his own business or trading.

(4) Any person who gives any false evidence to any licensing authority, knowing such evidence to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true, shall be guilty of an offence.

(5) The licensing authority shall have power to adjourn any such hearing from time to time as it may consider desirable:

Provided that an applicant for the renewal of a licence may continue to sell goods by way of business or carry on business, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of his licence until the licensing authority makes its decisions upon his application.

[Ch4601s13]13. Grounds for refusing to issue, renew or transfer

8 of 1970(1) If, when considering any application for the issue, renewal or transfer of any licence, the licensing authority is satisfied—

- (a) that the applicant is under the apparent age of 21 years;
- (b) that the applicant, or his or her husband or wife, is an undischarged bankrupt;
- (c) that a receiving order in bankruptcy has been made against the applicant, or his or her husband or wife, within the last two years preceding his application;
- (d) that the applicant, or his or her husband or wife, has been convicted of a bankruptcy offence within the last 3 years preceding his application;
- (e) that the carrying on of the business in question is likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance to persons occupying premises in the vicinity of the premises upon which such business is to be carried on;
- (f) that the premises on which the applicant intends to conduct his business do not conform with the requirements of any law for the time being in force;
- (h) that in the case of the issue of a wholesaler's licence, such issue would not be in the interests of the development of trade in the district or area in respect of which application has been made; or
- (i) that the applicant, or in the case of a partnership any of the partners, or in the case of a body corporate or unincorporate the person responsible for its management has been convicted within the last 3 years preceding his application—

- (i) of contravening any provisions of this Act;

- (ii) of contravening any Act, by-law or any other written law for the time being in force in any area with regard to the conduct of the business in question in such a manner as to cause a danger to public health, then the licensing authority may refuse to issue, renew or transfer the licence, as the case may be, or may issue, renew or transfer it subject to such conditions relevant to the said grounds as it may think fit.

(2) Before refusing to issue, renew or transfer, or before imposing any such condition on the issue, renewal or transfer of, any licence, the licensing authority shall give the applicant an opportunity to appear before it and show cause why his application should not be refused or why such condition should not be imposed. For the purposes of this section, the issue, renewal or transfer of a licence, as the case may be, shall mean the issue, renewal or transfer subject to any conditions which may be imposed under this section and references to an applicant shall be deemed to include references to any proposed transferee of any licence and, in the case of a partnership, each partner.

51 of 1971(3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) relating to the imposition of conditions on the issue, transfer or renewal of licences are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers to impose conditions on licences conferred by any other written law, and the provisions contained in subsection (4) conferring a power of cancellation shall apply to any condition to which a licence has lawfully been made subject whether pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) or any other provision of this or any other written law.

(4) The Minister may at any time cancel any licence for breach of any condition subject to which it was issued, renewed or transferred under this section:

Provided that before cancelling any licence the Minister may give the licensee an opportunity to appear before him and show cause why such licence should not be cancelled.

- (a) overrule the decision of a licensing authority; or

(2) The Minister shall not be required to give any reason for any action taken by him in the exercise of his powers under this section.

[Ch4601s15]15. Time limit for renewal of application

8 of 1970An unsuccessful applicant for any licence may not make a further application for a licence until the expiration of six months from the date when such application was refused by the licensing authority.

Provided that the Minister may, in his discretion, extend the time for giving notice of appeal.

(3) Upon the making of any appeal under this section, the appellant shall pay the prescribed fee and such fee shall accompany the notice of appeal given under subsection (2), and no appeal shall be entertained by the Minister until such fee shall have been paid.

8 of 1970(4) Pending the determination of an appeal against the refusal to renew or transfer a licence, the licence shall be deemed to remain in force until such appeal shall have been determined.

(5) The Minister—

(a) may, by notice in writing, require any person to produce any documents in his possession or power which relate to any matter in question on an appeal under this section, and any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any of the requirements of such notice shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that no person shall be required to produce any book, account, voucher, receipt or other document which directly refers to his business or trading;

(b) shall have power to make such investigation as he may deem fit in assisting him to come to a decision regarding any matter before him;

(c) may return to the appellant the fee paid by him under subsection (3).

(6) The Minister shall determine the matter of any appeal brought before him and may make such order therein in addition to or in substitution for the matter appealed against, as he may think fit, or may refer the matter back to the licensing authority concerned with his directions, which shall be binding upon such licensing authority.

8 of 1970(7) Any determination, order or reference under subsection (6) shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

[Ch4601s18]18. Custody and production of licences

(1) Where any licence specifies the premises on which any business shall be carried on, such licence shall be retained on such premises and shall be made available at any hour at which such premises are normally open for business for inspection by any person authorized under subsection (2) to demand the production of any licence.

(2) Every licensing authority or person authorized in writing in that behalf by any licensing authority, and every administrative officer and every police officer is authorized to demand the production of any licence and may enter upon any premises specified in any licence for the purpose of making any such demand or for seeing whether any conditions of the licence are being complied with.

(3) Any licence holder or other person having custody of a licence who, without reasonable excuse, fails to produce such licence upon lawful demand being made to him in that behalf shall be guilty of an offence.

(4) Where any person is charged under this Act with selling goods or with carrying on any business without a licence, such person shall be deemed to be without a licence unless he produces the same to the court or unless he is able to give other satisfactory proof that he has been issued with such licence in respect of the current year.
